

David Coats has been Associate Director - Policy at The Work Foundation since February 2004. He is responsible for The Work Foundation's engagement with the public policy world, seeking to influence the national conversation about the world of work.

He is recognised as an expert commentator on employment relations and quality of working life issues. His publications include: An Agenda for Work: The Work Foundation's Challenge to Policy

Makers; Who's Afraid of Labour Market Flexibility; The National Minimum Wage: Retrospect and Prospect; 7 out of 10: Ten Years of Labour Under Labour and Raising Lazarus: The Future of Organised Labour (Fabian Society).

David was a member of the Low Pay Commission from 2000-2004 and was appointed to the Central Arbitration Committee in 2005. He also serves on the Executive Committee of the Involvement and Participation Association, a number of academic advisory panels and the steering committee of Unions21.

David Coats, Associate Director of Policy
The Work Foundation

21 Palmer Street | London | SW1H 0AD

+44 (0) 20 7976 3603 | Fax: +44 (0) 20 7976 3600 | Mobile: 07795
387170

* DCoats@theworkfoundation.com

Web: www.theworkfoundation.com